RE: Continuing Education

Dear Gary,

The Northern Kentucky Building Inspectors Association will hold a training seminar on the 2012 IRC Transition from the 2006 IRC with the Kentucky amendments. We need to verify the course will qualify for CEU's for the Certified Building Inspectors program.

Please let me know if it will, or if there is any additional information we need to provide.

Sincerely,

Mark Brant

Title	2012 IRC Transition from the 2006 IRC
Description	This seminar will assist participants in implementing the transition from the 2006 IRC to the 2012 IRC. It will include relevant changes in the 2009 IRC. This interactive training will focus on the key changes presented in the participant material. Knowledge review questions will provide ample opportunity for participants to discuss and consider the changes.
Duration	1 Day
ICC CEU	.6
Contact Hours	6
Objectives	Upon completion, participants will be better able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the most significant differences between the 2006 IRC, 2009 IRC, and the 2012 IRC. • Explain the differences between the current and previous editions. • Identify changes in organization and code requirements. • Identify the applicability of design, plan review and inspection requirements.

Instructor:

Steve Van Note is the Managing Director of Product Development for the International Code Council (ICC), where he is responsible for developing technical resource materials in support of the International Codes. His role also includes the management, review, and technical editing of publications developed by expert authors. In addition, Steve develops and presents International Residential Code seminars nationally. Prior to joining ICC in 2006, Steve was building official for Linn County, Iowa. He has 15 years of experience in code administration and enforcement, and over 20 years of experience in the construction field, including project planning and management for residential, commercial, and industrial buildings. A certified building official and plans examiner, Steve also holds certifications in several inspection categories.

Ms. Lea Black, NKBIA Secretary will maintain the attendance verification records at the Boone County Building Department, 2950 Washington St., Suite 312, Burlington KY 41005 for a period of at least one year.
